John [unclear] [unclear]

I have been thinking much lately about the future of our country and the people who live in it.
 It seems to me that we are passing through a great crisis, one which will determine whether we are to remain a united people or become a collection of warring states. The question is not merely one of territory or power, but one of principle.
 We must decide whether we are to stand by the principles upon which we were founded, or whether we are to abandon them for the sake of momentary gain. I believe that the answer lies with us, and that if we only have the courage to do what is right, we shall preserve our Union and our liberties forever.

Yours truly,
 James M. Smith
